

Today, by their ballots, the people will settle the question of the men who are to fill the offices for the next two years.

There are a great many very important offices to be filled from United States Senator on down. Every voter should take a sufficient time from his daily duties to go out and cast his ballot for the best man.

The late crop on the cotton of this county is going to be very good. The crop has gone very much up in the last few weeks. The report from other sections of the cotton belt are to the effect that the crop generally is going to be good.

At Charlotte, N. C., September 8th, October 1st, 2nd and 3rd, one of the largest fairs and race meets ever seen in the South will be held. It will be a week of carnival and pleasure.

The city authorities and the superintendent of streets are trying the sand with the mud and are pushing ahead as much as possible in putting our streets in order. It is a big job and will take time, but we are glad to see the experiment being made of mixing some sand.

Mrs. Nannie Long, wife of Rev. J. J. Long, departed this life Monday, September 1, 1902, after an illness of about two weeks. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a host of friends.

Mrs. Nannie Long was indeed a loving wife, a fond mother and a true friend. A faithful Christian, not by profession only, but by heart and by deed.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. K. Felt at the Methodist church on Tuesday afternoon, amidst a large concourse of relatives and friends, after which her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery.
